

2021 Lost Poet Red Blend

California, USA

Winemaker Notes

We are proud to partner with author Atticus, a young anonymous writer whose personal interest in wine has been expressed throughout his work. He worked directly with our winemaker, Ryan Zotovich, to create Lost Poet. A plush and succulent red wine blend with slight sweetness, this is a wine that invites you to come back for another sip. And since we'll leave the poetry to the experts, what better way to end than with Atticus' words about Lost Poet: "Wine is poetry and so is life. So drink on. And live on. And write yours richly."
